

FOWLING

The dance at the od Charles Safford house was well attended Saturday night and a good time reported by all. Mrs. Sadie Henderson is spending a few days with home folks near Bayard.

Ed Wilkins and daughter, Miss Iva, and son, Ernest, were Alliance callers Saturday afternoon. Mr. Wilkins going to see a doctor.

Joe Kennedy and family and teacher, Miss McCormick attended the dance Saturday night.

Robert Mitchell and wife and baby visited at Ab Hall's one day last week. John Brus started to school Monday morning.

Alva Wilkins dug his potatoes last week and has a very good yield.

James Eaton finished putting up hay Friday evening and took the men to town. He moved home Saturday afternoon.

Dick Henderson and wife and the Henderson young folks attended the dance.

Howard Essex and Frank Keane were callers at the Wilkins' home Sunday afternoon.

Nelse Peterson and family motored to Alliance Saturday afternoon, taking in three hay men.

Ab Hall and family and teacher, Miss Roberts, motored to the dance

Saturday evening. Miss Roberts had the mistfortune to step on a nail upon arriving at the dance hall.

N. E. Hurlbut and wife are spending a few days visiting friends in Wyoming. They intend to make a stop at Hot Springs to visit Wind Cave.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kilpatrick and Mr. Banks motored to Alliance Saturday.

Mrs. Elsea and Mrs. Eaton took dinner at the Wilkin's home Sunday.

Mr. Snoddy of Alliance stopped at the Blackroot ranch Monday and took dinner with Mr. Mann. He also made a call at the Elsea home.

Charles Hall and son, Ab, motored to Alliance Monday.

Jake Elsea and wife and mother, Mrs. Brus, motored to Alliance Sunday. Mr. Elsea going down to have some dental work done by the army dentist. He remained overnight.

E. I. Wilkins is on the sick list.

Several of the young folks were disappointed Saturday evening when there was no dance at Duskins.

Lee Moore received a telegram from his sister Saturday, but could not understand it over the phone, so he motored to town to get it right.

James Eaton and wife and baby and Mrs. Elsea were callers at the Ab Hall home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kilpatrick motored to Alliance Thursday morning, taking Kyle Tucker down to the train. He went to New Castle, Wyo., to see about a homestead.

James Eaton and brother of Alliance motored to Cottonwood Lake Tuesday on a hunting trip.

Ernest Rosenberger of Hemingford is coming out to do some carpenter work for Charles Hall this week. He is building an addition on his house.

Lace, Organdie and Crocheted Collars, 59c.
Highland-Holloway Co.
Herald Want Ads are read.

Take advantage of Thiele's "Win the Ford" Sale. Standard goods at reduced prices. Ford tickets given with each dollar purchase.

* Boys' Hats, $1.00.
Highland-Holloway Co.

Priscilla Dean Tams, $2.00.
Highland-Holloway Co.

Come to the Harvest Home Festival

Saturday, October 15th

ALLIANCE, NEBRASKA

Get Your Tickets on the Ford Car at These Stores

- | | | |
|---------------------------|-------------------------|-----------------------------|
| The Famous | George D. Darling | McVicker Millinery |
| The Golden Rule | Glen Miller | Palace Market |
| Harper's Department Store | Schafer Auto Supply | E. Essay |
| Newberry's Hardware Co. | Alliance Tire Works | Model Cleaning Works |
| Hirst's Grocery | Horace Bogue Store | Fielding's Cleaning Shop |
| Mallery Grocery | Baer-Alter Shoe Store | Corner Barber Shop |
| Duncan's Grocery | Coursey & Miller | A. D. Rodgers Grocery |
| Morgan's Grocery | O'Bannon & Neuswanger | Imperial Theatre |
| The National Store | The Farmers' Union | Joe R. Smith |
| E. G. Laing | Highland-Holloway Co. | Model Market |
| Thiele's Drug Store | The Fashion Shop | J. E. Stegg Furniture Store |
| Holsten's Drug Store | Wiker Music House | Lee Moore Grocery |
| Brennan's Drug Store | Dole Variety Store | Mann Music & Art Co. |
| Alliance Drug Store | Beckwith Clothing Store | |

The Car Will be Given Away Festival Day

Winner must be present at drawing. No tickets will be held by any Alliance Merchant